

Lower Middle Market Independent Sponsor

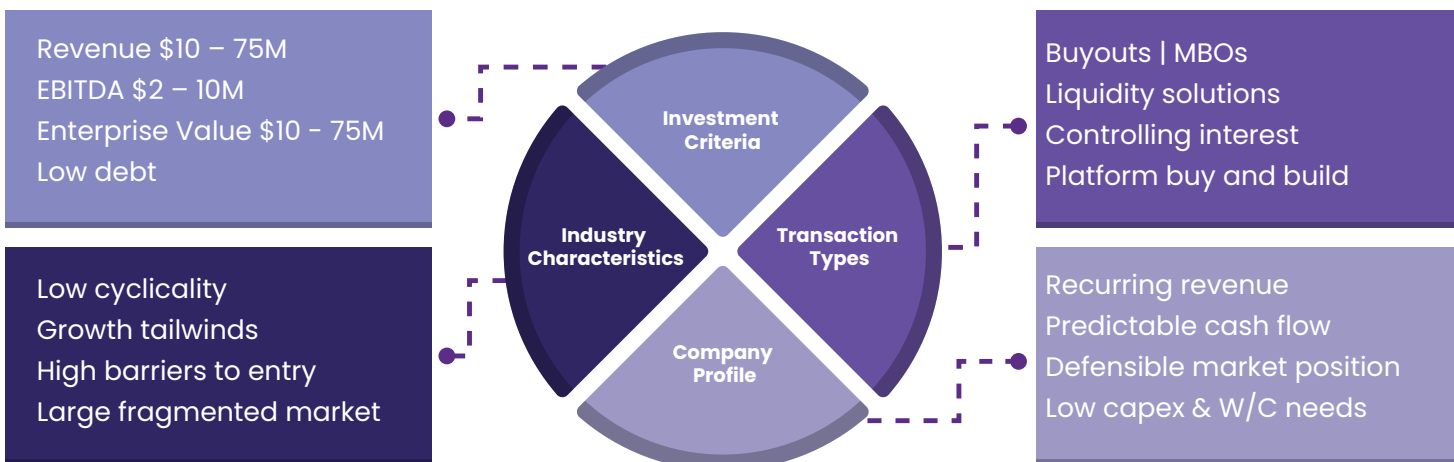

Vibrantium is a private investment firm, based in Washington, D.C., focused on partnering with business owners in the lower middle market. We pride ourselves on being business builders and entrepreneurs at heart, with the ability to provide creative capital solutions to growing businesses. We look to make control investments in profitable companies that provide essential services to large end markets.

Our Approach

Our partnership model allows owners to attain liquidity upfront, while still benefiting from future value creation. From the onset, we ensure that our vision, execution plan and financial interest are aligned with the entrepreneur and management team. We work hard to be more than capital and will roll up our sleeves alongside management to help build and grow value.

We seek companies in the following industries:

- Healthcare Services
- Industrial Services
- Business Services
- Consumer Goods & Services
- Government Contracting
- Logistics & Storage
